Dear Whangarei Community,

The Whangarei Art Museum will be hosting a Medicine Buddha Sand Mandala created by Ven. Geshe Jamyang Sherab of Tho Sam Dhargyey Ling, Tauranga and Ven. Karma Gyasey of Jam Tse Dhargyey Ling, Whangarei.

The Medicine Buddha Sand Mandala exhibition dates are 26th of September 2016 until the 4th of December 2016. The Monks will have the mandala over a two week period and then the Art Museum will provide a large Perspex case to cover it for the duration of the exhibition period until the closing ceremony.

The opening ceremony is on the 26th of September at 4.30pm and the closing ceremony will be on the 4th of December at 10.30am followed by a pot luck lunch.

Whangarei Art Museum has also invited Ven. Nyima Gyaltzen to spend some days showcasing his Thangka painting during the construction of the Sand Mandala. As part of the Sand Mandala exhibition there is dedicated wall space to display approximately 20 Thangka paintings.

The Whangarei Art Museum is seeking members of the Whangarei Community to lend Thangka for the duration of the exhibition. The Thangka will be cared for and handled by trained museum staff.

If you have Thangka's in your private collection that you would be willing to lend please email the Director, Ruth Green-Cole at ruth.green-cole@wdc.govt.nz with the completed form (see overleaf) or drop the form into Whangarei Art Museum reception before 4pm on the 18th of September 2016.

You will be advised by phone and/or email if your Thangka is selected for display. The three days to drop off the Thangka are the 20, 21 and 22 of September between the hours of 10am – 4pm. You will be provided with a loan agreement and the Thankas will be insured while they are on display.

Yours faithfully

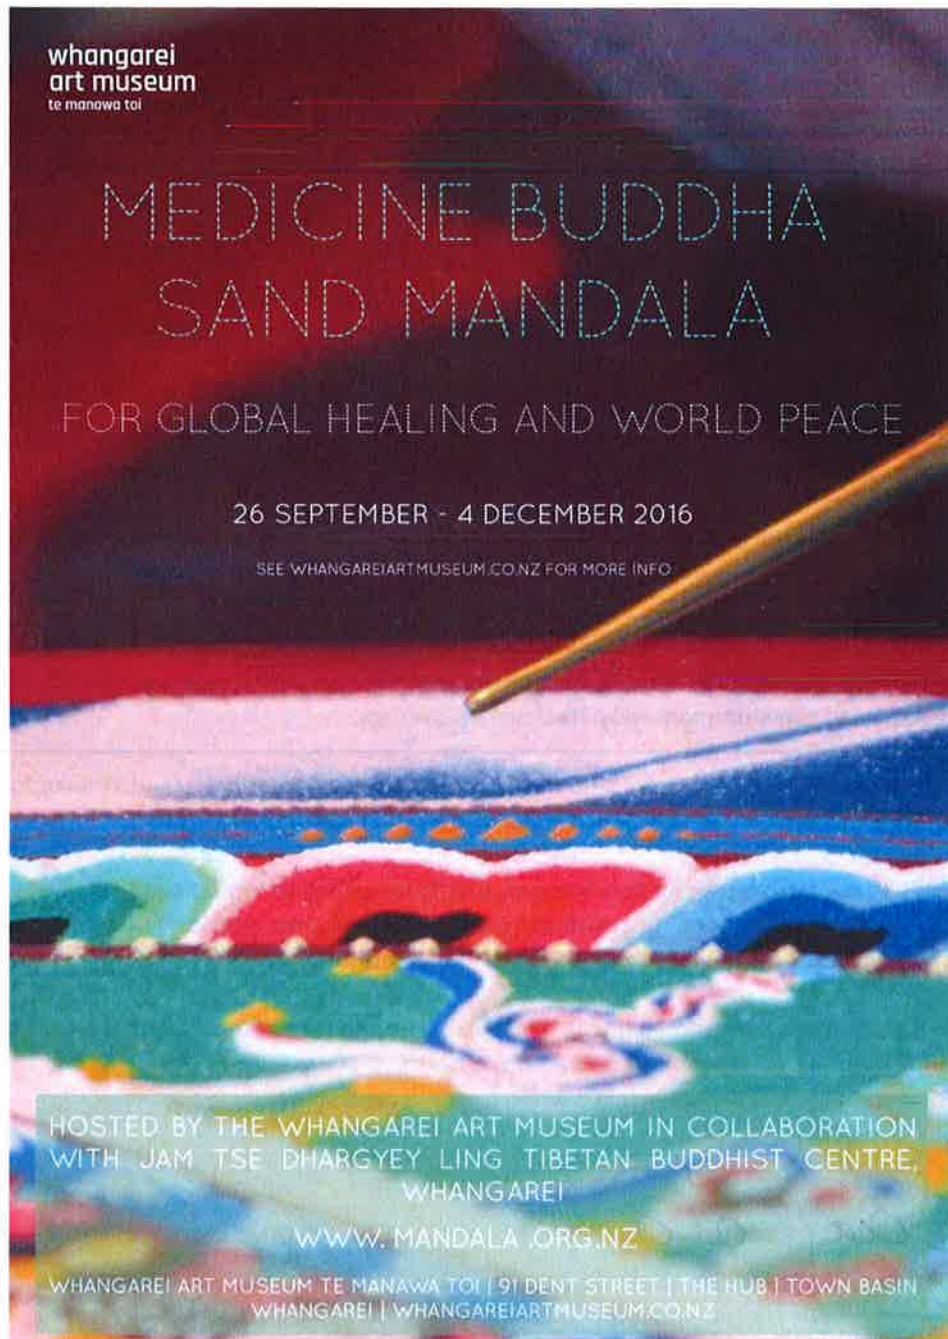

Ruth Green-Cole | Director
